USNC-URSI AND THE NRSM

The United States National Committee (USNC) for the International Union of Radio Science (URSI) is comprised of 10 scientific commissions relating to applied electromagnetics. The NRSM attracts ~400 attendees from universities, government labs, DoD contractors, etc.

BENEFITS

- Recruit, including U.S. citizens and women (from our Women in Radio Science or WIRS Chapter)
- Display your logo at the student luncheon (e.g. table centerpieces), in the Conference Program, at the conference registration desk, and during the Business Meetings.
- Receive one complimentary NRSM registration
- (Optional) Host a booth in the main lobby next to the registration desk
- (Optional) Choose someone from your company or institution to serve as a panelist
- (Optional) Deliver a 5-minute “Lightning Talk” at the beginning of the luncheon
- Find collaborators for SBIR/SBTT proposals

The 2025 NRSM is technically cosponsored by USNC-URSI and IEEE AP-S.
